PROPERTY CHECK REQUEST INFORMATION

- Property check forms are submitted to request increased police patrols of your residence or business while you are away for an extended period of time.
- The property check is not used for homes or businesses that are for sale, abandoned or in foreclosure.
- A property will remain on the property check list for a MAXIMUM of 180 days.
- Property checks will be performed within the Town of Seneca Falls limits as time permits.
- By submitting this request, the Seneca Falls Police Department and its employees are released from any and all liability for damages or loss occurring during the requested time periods.
- If you return or no longer need property checks prior to the end date listed on the request form, you must notify the police department.
- The police department will automatically terminate the property check after the listed end date. If you need to extend the property check, it is your responsibility to notify the police department.
